

WILLIAMS-PORT, Nov. 24th, 1832.

SIR:—I take the earliest occasion after the receipt of your circular, which did not come to hand until the 3d instant, to report myself to your department, in compliance with a resolution of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at December session 1831.

I have the honor to be,

Your most obedient servant,

JACOB WOLF, Lieut. Col.

10th Reg. Md. M.

NOTTIGHAM, Nov. 28th 1832.

SIR:—I have the honor to report myself for actual service, whenever required by the commander-in-chief.

With due respect,

Your obedient servant,

L. H. EARLY,

Capt. in 17th Reg. of Md. M. in P. G. Co.

ADJT. GEN. RICH'D. HARWOOD, Annapolis Md.

BELL-AIR, Dec. 5, 1832.

SIR:—The difficulty (almost an impossibility) of obtaining returns of the numerical strength of my regimental district, must be my excuse for not having earlier returned to your department the state of my regiment. I now enclose the return and hope it is in time for the purposes of the executive.

The militia law is in such a relaxed and insufficient state, that it is impossible for officers to do justice to their commands. I trust and hope the executive will in their wisdom, recommend its revision to the legislature, and the enactment of such provisions as will enable the officers to coerce discipline. We have now no parade whatever.—There ought to be at least four company and two field parades, and such penal sanctions provided as would compel a compliance with the commands of the officers.

Major Thomas Street of the 7th Cavalry District, has omitted reporting himself by the day provided in the resolution of the last session. He requests that I would name
